The Tate Year 3 Project Information and Consent Form

Dear Parents and Carers,

All this year, schools across London are taking part in a very special learning project. This project is led by a globally renowned artist, working with the Tate gallery, Artangel and the educational charity A New Direction.

Every Year 3 class across the capital has been invited to take part in the largest group portrait ever made and to see their class photograph among thousands of others in a vast exhibition at the prestigious Tate Britain in central London.

Our school is delighted to be a part of this free learning programme and is excited about seeing our Year 3 class photograph(s) become part of one of the most compelling British artworks of our time. As part of the project, a photographer from Tate is coming to school to take a class photograph of our Year 3 class(es). We want to include all children in Year 3 in the photograph as well as the teaching staff.

After the class photograph has been taken, it will appear as part of the free public exhibition at Tate Britain from November 2019 until May 2020 along with a vast number of other class photographs from primary schools London-wide. You will have the opportunity to visit the exhibition and our school will keep you informed of our involvement in the project and how you can get involved.

By way of reassurance, the class photograph that appears in the exhibition will not name any pupils. Once the exhibition is over, the photograph will be returned to the school as a souvenir for our reception area and Tate will keep a copy in its archives, as they do with all the artworks in their national collection, so that they can show the artwork again should there be a future exhibition.

Please complete the consent request which has been added to the Arbor Parent Portal if you agree to your child participating in the class photograph and for this to be displayed and stored at Tate as part of this national artwork. If you do not give your consent (or do not respond), your child will still be able to take part in class activity but will not be photographed as part of the class photograph which will be displayed in the public exhibition.

Kind regards,

Naomi Cave and Sarah Lewis, on behalf of Tate Britain

Other than the image of your child in the class photograph, no personal data about your child will be passed to Tate or project partners. This consent form will remain in school in a secure environment. Please contact the Headteacher if you have any queries about the project.

Withdrawing consent. You can change your mind and withdraw your consent at any time in the future by contacting the school. You can find out more detailed information on when and why Tate collects personal information, how it is used and how it is kept secure in Tate's Privacy Notice: <https://www.tate.org.uk/about-us/policies-and-procedures/tate-privacy-policy>. The Privacy Notice also provides information about privacy rights and how to contact Tate.
